Part X Public Charity Status

Part X is designed to classify you as an organization that is either a private foundation or a public charity. Public charity status is a more favorable tax status than private foundation status. If you are a private foundation, Part X is designed to further determine whether you are a private operating foundation. (See instructions.)

- 1a Are you a private foundation? If "Yes," go to line 1b. If "No," go to line 5 and proceed as instructed. If you are unsure, see the instructions.  Yes  No
- b As a private foundation, section 508(e) requires special provisions in your organizing document in addition to those that apply to all organizations described in section 501(c)(3). Check the box to confirm that your organizing document meets this requirement, whether by express provision or by reliance on operation of state law. Attach a statement that describes specifically where your organizing document meets this requirement, such as a reference to a particular article or section in your organizing document or by operation of state law. See the instructions, including Appendix B, for information about the special provisions that need to be contained in your organizing document. Go to line 2.
- 2 Are you a private operating foundation? To be a private operating foundation you must engage directly in the active conduct of charitable, religious, educational, and similar activities, as opposed to indirectly carrying out these activities by providing grants to individuals or other organizations. If "Yes," go to line 3. If "No," go to the signature section of Part XI.  Yes  No
- 3 Have you existed for one or more years? If "Yes," attach financial information showing that you are a private operating foundation; go to the signature section of Part XI. If "No," continue to line 4.  Yes  No
- 4 Have you attached either (1) an affidavit or opinion of counsel, (including a written affidavit or opinion from a certified public accountant or accounting firm with expertise regarding this tax law matter), that sets forth facts concerning your operations and support to demonstrate that you are likely to satisfy the requirements to be classified as a private operating foundation; or (2) a statement describing your proposed operations as a private operating foundation?  Yes  No
- 5 If you answered "No" to line 1a, indicate the type of public charity status you are requesting by checking one of the choices below. You may check only one box.
The organization is not a private foundation because it is:
  - a 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(i)—a church or a convention or association of churches. Complete and attach Schedule A.
  - b 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(ii)—a school. Complete and attach Schedule B.
  - c 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(iii)—a hospital, a cooperative hospital service organization, or a medical research organization operated in conjunction with a hospital. Complete and attach Schedule C.
  - d 509(a)(3)—an organization supporting either one or more organizations described in line 5a through c, f, g, or h or a publicly supported section 501(c)(4), (5), or (6) organization. Complete and attach Schedule D.

- e 509(a)(4)—an organization organized and operated exclusively for testing for public safety.
- f 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(iv)—an organization operated for the benefit of a college or university that is owned or operated by a governmental unit.
- g 509(a)(1) and 170(b)(1)(A)(vi)—an organization that receives a substantial part of its financial support in the form of contributions from publicly supported organizations, from a governmental unit, or from the general public.
- h 509(a)(2)—an organization that normally receives not more than one-third of its financial support from gross investment income and receives more than one-third of its financial support from contributions, membership fees, and gross receipts from activities related to its exempt functions (subject to certain exceptions).
- i A publicly supported organization, but unsure if it is described in 5g or 5h. The organization would like the IRS to decide the correct status.

6 If you checked box g, h, or i in question 5 above, you must request either an advance or a definitive ruling by selecting one of the boxes below. Refer to the instructions to determine which type of ruling you are eligible to receive.

a Request for Advance Ruling: By checking this box and signing the consent, pursuant to section 6501(c)(4) of the Code you request an advance ruling and agree to extend the statute of limitations on the assessment of excise tax under section 4940 of the Code. The tax will apply only if you do not establish public support status at the end of the 5-year advance ruling period. The assessment period will be extended for the 5 advance ruling years to 8 years, 4 months, and 15 days beyond the end of the first year. You have the right to refuse or limit the extension to a mutually agreed-upon period of time or issue(s). Publication 1035, Extending the Tax Assessment Period, provides a more detailed explanation of your rights and the consequences of the choices you make. You may obtain Publication 1035 free of charge from the IRS web site at www.irs.gov or by calling toll-free 1-800-829-3676. Signing this consent will not deprive you of any appeal rights to which you would otherwise be entitled. If you decide not to extend the statute of limitations, you are not eligible for an advance ruling.

Part V Narrative Description of Your Activities

Mission: The Moirai Conservation and Research Inc. works to understand and protect earth's longest lived species.

Purpose and Goals: Moirai Conservation and Research Inc. is composed of qualified biologists and researchers, and exists for the following purposes:

1. To educate the public about the conservation status, ecological importance, habitat, physiology, general behavior, and lifespan of long-lived species. To this end, the organization maintains an educational website (www.moiraiconservation.org) and has published a book detailing current knowledge of long-lived animals (ISBN-13:978-0-9983592-2-9). The organization plans to continue the creation of educational material, such as books and online articles, as well as performing and hosting lectures at public venues, such as universities, schools, and libraries. Speaking events will be held locally at first (central Florida), but expanded as resources allow.
2. To add to the public pool of knowledge concerning long-lived species by performing grant-funded and donation-funded field research. For many of these species, vital information, such as conservation status, is either limited or completely unknown. The organization plans to coordinate and work with volunteers in an effort to study these species world-wide. Furthermore, the ability of some animals to achieve extremely long lifespans (in some cases, several times the average human lifespan), is not well understood by the scientific community. It is the goal of the organization to investigate the extreme longevity of these animals from multiple scientific perspectives. New information gained will be submitted for publication in open access journals, and incorporated into education efforts aimed at the public.
3. To provide for the conservation of these species. Many of the known long-lived species are currently threatened or endangered. It is the goal of the organization to develop conservation strategies to guard against the possible loss of these species. Immediate conservation efforts will include assessments of the conservation status and habitat range of long-lived species indigenous to the state of Florida, but will expand both nation-wide and world-wide as resources allow. It is also ultimately the goal of the organization to collect and store cell samples from endangered long-lived species, and to completely sequence the DNA of these species as a safeguard to preserve vital information about them in the event of their extinction. Acquired DNA sequences will be made freely available to the public.

To avoid possible misunderstandings and conflicts with directors or volunteers who produce such material, the organization has a standing policy on intellectual property rights, which is reprinted below:
